Types of U.S. Households, 2002

- Traditional: 7%
- Dual-income, with children: 16%
- Dual-income, no children: 13%
- Other: 64%

Note: Traditional households include married-couple households with children where only the husband is in the labor force.

Types of U.S. Married-Couple Households, 2002

- Traditional: 13%
- Dual-income, with children: 31%
- Dual-income, no children: 25%
- Other: 31%

Note: Traditional households include married-couple households with children where only the husband is in the labor force.